

answer: infinite or undefined

17. What name is given to the process by which insects shed their exoskeletons and grow new ones?

answer: molting (accept: shed before given)

18. Brought to the world's attention by W.C. Handy, these songs were derived from prison, funeral, and slave songs. What are these songs with a melancholy nature, a type of jazz?

answer: blues (prompt on early "jazz")

19. Dylan Thomas wrote of a Child's Christmas here. Name this part of the United Kingdom with capital at Cardiff, found on the western part of the island of Britain.

answer: Wales

20. In Super Mario Brothers, Bowser is located in the castle in the world with what number, the castle being the fourth section of that world?

answer: 8 (accept: 8-4 and compliment the player on their skillz)